

public relations / events / digital

Red Dog dominates Jameson IF Awards

Great Australian Songbook featuring ICEHOUSE

JMo Film Fest

To see more 6dc news click here

news

Jameson IF Awards Sydney

Every dog has his day and Australia's favourite film of 2011, Red Dog, took out seven awards at this year's Jameson IF Awards Sydney last Wednesday night. Koko who played Red Dog joined fellow cast and crew to attend the event at Sydney's Luna Park, barking on demand for delighted media. Despite the rain Sydney turned out in support of Australia's only people's choice awards hosted by the unstoppable Eddie Perfect.

Congratulations to all of this year's winners and huge thanks to Dan MacPherson, Todd Lasance, Lincoln Lewis, Sigrid Thornton, Zoe Ventoura, Julia Morris, Stephen Curry, Richard Roxburgh, Xavier Samuel, Don Hany, Sophie Lowe, Angus McLaren, Ronan Keating, Michael Dorman and many more Australian talent for all your support at this year's event. And if you missed the show - just tune in to SBS or Showtime and catch all the action.

we love...

eQUIP Jingle Bell Rock

Jingle bell, jingle bell, jingle bell rock, eQUIP has all the accessories that will make you rock around the clock this summer.

In December 6dc is launching eQUIP's social media Christmas campaign, inviting facebook and twitter friends to post their styling shots of eQUIP's latest collection – the campaign will run for three weeks in the lead up to Christmas and a winner each week will WIN a $100 eQUIP prize pack. Make sure you LIKE eQUIP on facebook to be kept in the know when the competition launches.

we watched...

Lovers Electric on their Australian Tour

Returning home to Australia after three years in Europe, Lovers Electric – AKA David Turley and Eden Boucher – are back on tour, the first time since 2008 they have returned to their homeland. The oh-so fashionable duo have been performing acoustic sets of material from their new album Impossible Dreams and favourites from their debut album, Whatever You Want . Performing in the country's most popular venues such as The Vanguard, Sydney and The Promethean in their hometown of Adelaide - Lovers Electric did not disappoint. Complete with their miniature red piano for which they have become famous, their fans have been coming out in support. Not even Alan Joyce and the QANTAS grounding could stop the musical couple from touring – when they heard the announcement while driving to the airport in Adelaide they just kept on driving until they reached Sydney for their next performance.

Update your iPod with Lovers Electric's new album Impossible Dreams via iTunes

we did...

Kardashian Kollection Handbag Launch at Westfield Miranda

The Kardashian Kollection handbag launch for Strandbags took Westfield Miranda by storm. An estimated 8,000 people packed the shopping centre, screaming fans waited in line for hours, photographers and news crews were snapping/recording away and the gorgeous Kylie Gillies and Bruno Schiavi kicked off proceedings.

And Kim Kardashian & Khloé Kardashian Odom did not disappoint. The girls joked with fans in the crowd as they signed autographs for everyone who made a Kardashian Kollection handbag purchase. They even enticed Lamar onstage for an impromptu rap. The production was managed by 6dc Events and deemed a huge success by our clients. We hope the girls come back again soon, 'The Shire' loved them.

our favourite things this month...

Julia Morris WINNING The first series of NINE's Celebrity Apprentice...GO JMo!! The new refurb at QVB's Jet Bar by SJB Interiors, there is nothing like immersing yourself in the city with great interiors and a glass of vino. Iva Davis and ICEHOUSE gear up for Homebake next month – tickets are still available! Our new client Bon Bon Chocolates have opened up a Café in the historic Strand Arcade, you can now kill two birds with one stone – satisfy your craving for shopping & chocolates, click here for more details. With Christmas round the corner, Chifley Plaza's 101 Christmas Ideas guide has been published in the nick of time covering corporate gifts to Kris Kringle to festive fashion – view your copy online and get into the festive spirit.

we learnt

"That people will lie their way into an event & even call themselves a hard-hitting journalist."

we heard

"Mr Bouris declare Julia Morris as the winner of Australia's first Celebrity Apprentice." Next stop Trump Towers JMo!

we read

"The media report is coming back to ABC radio national in 2012."

Amanda Fry
61 2 9280 1600
61 418 262 282
amanda@6dc.com.au

 Follow us on Facebook | View Online | Unsubscribe | Forward to a Friend | © 6DC 2011